Toronto “Humber Valley to Lakeshore” Half Day Cycle Tour

Toronto is a city with many hidden gems for bikers of all abilities. Start pedaling from the city center itself and enjoy a scenic ride along the Humber Valley Trail. Discover the forests and parkland located within the city.

Head south toward the Lake and enjoy the cool shaded riding along paved bike paths. Once we reach Lake Ontario, head east and pass by some of Toronto’s most outstanding landmarks including Lake Ontario, the Sky Dome, Toronto Island, and not to be missed, the CN Tower.

We cap off our ride at the Historic Distillery District. Once the largest Distillery in the British Empire, the Gooderham & Worts Distillery is now a pedestrian-only gem, dedicated to culture, arts, and entertainment. Here we’ll have a walking tour of the area, finishing off the afternoon with a cold beer at the Mill Street Brewery.

WHAT TO BRING/WEAR

- Wear comfortable clothes and athletic shoes. For example, shorts and a T-Shirt with some runners;
- Good idea NOT to wear: jeans (uncomfortable), long loose pants (loose fabric around the ankles can get caught in the chainrings);
- Bring a jacket in case of a change in weather;
- Bring a camera if you like;
- Bring your wallet if you'd like to buy some wine or accessories in the wine shops;
- NOTE: our support van can take along small items like that. However we can't carry entire changes of clothes for the whole group, so dress for the biking!

We look forward to showcasing the best of Niagara... by bike!
